PER YEAR

TUESDAY EVENING, NOVEMBER 27.

EUESCRIPTION TO THE EVENING EDITION (Including Postage),

ed at the Post-Office at New York so second-class

Here's a "High-Water Mark."

The Actual Bona-Fide Number "Worlds" Printed and Sold experienced and well-preserved artistes. Wednesday Nov. 7, 1888, Was 580,205.

J. B. McGuppin, Supt. of Mail and Delivery Dept. W. H. NEWMAN, Foreman Press-Room.

Personally appeared before me this 8th day of ber, 1888, J. B. McGuppin, Superin Rovember, 1888, J. B. Blowery Department, and tendent Mail and Delivery Department, and W. H. NEWMAN, Foreman Press-Room of THE WORLD, teho, being sworn, do depose and say that the foregoing statement is true and correct, JOHN D. AUSTIN, Commissioner of Deeds.

A Record Never Before Achieved by an American Newspaper.

AN UNPIT APPCINTMENT.

The appointment of D. Lowsen SMITH as professions of a desire to secure honest government for the city.

Apart from all other considerations, it has been shown that under Gen. NEWTON's management of the Department precisely the same methods have prevailed as those which were the foundation of charges against HUBERT O. THOMPSON, which caused his ar raigi mant by the Council of Municipal Reform, his consure by a slegislative investigating committee, his precentment by a Grand Jury, and came near procuring his indictment for malfeasance. It is conceded that these methods have been due to Deputy Smirn's influence. It has been shown that the $999 contracts which have become so notorious, have been shared by D. Lowsen Smith's brother as well as by TROMPSON'S contractor, RICHARD A. CUNNINGHAM.

Surely these facts ought to be enough to deter any Mayor having consideration for the public interests from intrusting such important department to the old deputy of THOMPSON and SQUIRE, The do not care a straw who makes these appointments, but they do insist that the public offices shall be placed in the hands of fitting and trustworthy men, and shall be better conducted than they have been for two years past.

BARBASSMENTS OF CHIVALBY. Chivalry is in a bad way just now. The BLACKBURN-RUCKER difficulty has not turned out well for either of the principals concerned, nor for some of their friends, Judge RUCKER disgraced himself when he revealed what was evidently a private conversation he had with the President on the introduction of Senator BLACKBURN, even if his story was correct. Senator BLACKBURN disgraced himself when he declared that a person he had taken to the White House and indorsed was a man unfit to be recognized by gentlemen. The blusterers who bullied Judge Bucken at a safe distance did themselves no honor. The result is that chivalry is compelled to take the back track. Senator BLACKSURN has publicly apologized for the bullying language he used towards Judge RUCKER, and will probably have to make a personal retraction in addition. This is bad, very bad, for Kentucky, sah!

Now comes the Richmond State, with an outburst of chivalry against ex-Congressman Joun S. Wisz. The editor applies to the ex-Congressman the delicate terms of disgraced renegade, abandoned adventurer, blustering braggart, cropped bully and branded pol-

A retraction and apology will probably follow in a few days. But on the whole, chivalry is, as we have said, in a bad way. It is rapidly becoming merged in Billingsgate, and its valor is growing to be of the Bob Acres character.

AN OFFENDED DUDE.

An incident on the Sixth Avenue Elevated Railroad yesterday affords a new insight into the character of the dude. One of that species was seated in a crowded train, when the swinging of the cars around a curve in the road caused a young woman who stood opposite to him to plump down fairly and squarely into his lap. Still the dude kept his seat, although with heightened color, while the young lady regained her footing and with much embarrassment resumed her standing

But the Sixth Avenue Elevated curves ar numerous, and scarcely had she visen when tother swing returned her, with even greater force to the young man's knees Then the dude rose from his seat with anger clouding his brow and and accused the young woman of " doing it on purpose,"

Cries of "shame" sent him speedily to the platform and he left the train at the next sta-

WORLD. | tion. Such a fellow ought to be proclaimed | so that his punishment might be never to have a young woman sit on his knee again during the whole course of his life.

BURLESQUE FLIRTATION.

The London Gaiety Company has already commenced to introduce variety perform ances into private circles in the city. A young married man has been so captivated by one of the fair burlesquers as to cause his wife to abandon him in a fit of jealousy, leaving a little three-year-old daughter on his hands, to distract his attention from the Gaiety damsels.

Of course the young husband is wholly to blame. What business had he to flirt with actresses when he had a wife and child to attend to? Besides, the ladies of the FARREN troupe are too mature and experienced to enter into such giddy amusements as flirtations with married men. Miss Farner, who has been nearly a quarter of a century in the business-of burlesque acting, we mean-would never encourage or permit such impropriety on the part of her

A SAD HISTORY.

The divorce case of FREDERICE HURTT against Louise Huntr, about to be tried in the Boston courts, gives to the world a very sad domestic history. Mrs. HURTT is the daughter of a clergyman, the Rev. Will-IAM WAGO. She was eighteen years old, and a very beautiful girl, at the time of her marriage in 1881. The match was in every respect a desirable one, and during an extended trip in Europe and a residence in this city the young wife and her husband, surrounded by every luxury, were entirely happy.

Mrs. Hunrr took a violent cold, and was attacked by neuralgia, which became so scute that the doctors treated her with morphine. The constant pain made her resort to the drug more frequently than her physician knew, and she became slave to its use. To wean her from this Mr. HURTT took her Commissioner of Public Works proves how | tolan opium joint and allowed her to try the false and hypocritical are all Mayor HEWITT's pipe. The one evil took the place of the other. The young wife became a secret attendant at the place and her degradation followed.

What a lesson this teaches against the resort to such drugs, even as remedial agencies, except under the most extreme and unavoidable circumstances.

The Rev. Howard T. Widdiman married his present wife while a former wife, from whom he was divorced, was living. The disclosure of this fact has resulted in a decision by the church authorities that he must put away his wife or leave his pulpit. He has chosen to give up his church rather than a woman who has been his faithful partner in life. Every right-minded person will approve his choice. He does not believe that the gates of heaven are too narrow to admit a person who has not divested himself of all humanity.

The report of the Commissioners for the New Parks has been substantially confirmed by the General Term, the exception being that a few awards which are objected to by owners are reserved for further hearing. It will be to the credit of the next administration if these public improvements are vigorously pushed for the next two years.

Mr. JOHN BRIGHT lies at the point of death. The Queen and the Empress FREDERICK are constant in their inquiries as to the dying statesman's condition.

The Ford Immigration Committee is preparing its report. Its investigation was thorough, and its recommendations will doubtless be valuable.

A new National bank is to open next Monday in this city. What retiring statesman or wounded politician is in want of a Presidency ?

WORLDLINGS.

Potter Palmer, the Chicago hotel magnate and real-estate owner, is credited with having a rent

Mrs. Burnett's famous child's story, "Little Lord Fauntieroy," is said to have netted her $19,000 in profits, in addition to what she has received from the dramatization of the story.

Senator Joe Brown, of Georgia, is considere one of the wealthlest men in the South. He is nov sixty-eight years old, and his political life runs back for a generation before the beginning of the war. His present term in the Senate expires in

Mr. Eberhardt Faber, a grandson of A. W. Faber, whose name is stamped on so many pen clis, told a Chicago reporter recently that at a low every year. The house of the Pabers dates back to 1701, when they started a small factory near Berlin, Germany.

Small-Pox on a Lake Steamer. crew is supposed to be afflicted with small-pox, and one of whom died after leaving the boat at Huffalo, strived from the latter place off South Chicago yesterday. She was laden with coal, consigned to a South Chicago firm. The vessel was not permitted to come to her dock.

> An Unfortunate Admission. [From Puck.]

Youngest Danguter (of father of seven of them)-Paps, I can't-I positively can't stand the strain! I m-m-must t-t-tell you! I had planned to clope

COLUMN OF

SOME OF THE LATEST BRIGHT THINGS STRUCK OFF BY THE HUMOPISTS.

In Chicago

Mrs. Breakaway—The cable message said he tried to mount an Aip or somethins, and fell off. Mrs. Laiter—What terribly careless drivers they must have over there!

[From America,] Stranger—I'd like to take my family into the heatre free. Will you please meamerize me? Manager-Mesmerize you? Why? Stranger-I mean make some passes.

Dotor Him a Rank Injustice. (From Harper's Baser,) Dumley (to Brown)—Brown, I understand that Robinson referred to me yesterday as an old fool. I don't think that sort of thing is right. Brown— Why, of course, it sin't right, Dumley. You can't be more than forty at the outside.

[From Time.]

Bagley-What a melancholy man that Griggsby s! Baily-Well, I guess you'd be melancholy t your wife had just died. Bagley—Yee, but Griggs-by is continually doing things to increase his misery. Baily—Indeed? Bagley—Yes, I saw him last night at the minstreis.

(From America.)

Sensible Girl.

"I can tell you, my dear," said a wife of a year's

How She Economized.

"Did you know, my dear, that the Dashalls are all going to Europe for a year ?" Miss S. -No! Why, how can they afford it?

At the Theatre.

[From the Chicago Tribuns.] three times already. If you intend going again you will have to climb over me. I shall not budge."

"Tha—thass right, Naushy," said Mr. Rambo, approvingly, as he climbed over her. "You shtay right here. I o'n (hic) budge 'nough I'r th' whole fam'ty, Naushy,"

This maiden, the lacking in styale, Is sharp at a three-cornered fale; And she'll bet you her pisle She can swim o'er the Nisis, Nor moisten a piume of her tisle;

But, ob, she is fuller of bisle
Than a cow is of chyele,
And it saidens the smisle
Af the maid of Belle lisie for a whisle!

Polsoned by a Belladonna Plaster.

Aldred Edwards was poisoned last week at Tiffin, and now the mystery of his poisoning is made clear. The doctors insisted that he was poisoned by belladonna, but he declared was poisoned by belladonna, but he declared that he had taken nothing. It now develops that he had been wearing a belladonna p'aster on his chest, and, becoming heated, had removed it and scratched his chest until it bled, then put the plaster back. The belladonna was taken into the broken blood veins and thus passed through the system. While the doctors were working with him the plaster was accidentally removed, and thus his life was saved.

office on Church street, charged with an emberz-siement committed five years ago. The Stoning-ton Savings Bank gave Halliwell $2,000 to put out on mortgages. Halliwell, it is alleged, pocketed the money, but during the whole time paid up the interest regularly. His dishonesty was not dis-covered until to-day. Had the matter remained undiscovered three days longer Halliwell would have been exempt from prosecution by the statute of limitation. He has been released on $3,000 bail.

Cohlman, of Auburn, aged tweive and ten years espectively, were drowned in Mud Lake, Osceola, They went on to the ice to get a ball and broke on printers are moving to have one of their er appointed Government Printer. The American Federation of Labor will discuss the eight-hour rule at its Convention in December.

The Ale and Porter Brewers Union has excluded from membership all persons who are not citizens of the United States.

to the strikers.

The Brooklyn Central Labor Union and the Raights of Labor have appointed a joint Conference Committee to settle all disputes that may arise between them.

The election of a delegate to the International Congress of Workingmen to be held in Switzerland in April, will be urged by the American Federation of Labor at its meeting Doc. 12.

Tis the next of a procession through the centuries on i Get a thorough welcome ready for the Grand Old Day!

Mrs. Latter-Awful! How did it happen!

Wanted a Pass.

A Very Miserable Man-

First Actor-When I was claying in St. Paul, the andience was intensely enthusiastic. One lady threw me a diamond that weighed nearly three carais.
Second Actor—That's nothing. I've had more carrots than that thrown at me, and in smaller towns than St. Paul, too.

standing to one just newly married, "it's one thing to manage a sweetheart and another to manage a husuand."
"Oh! I shan't have any trouble about that," said the happy pride. "Ma takes all that off my hands.
She's bad practice."

[From the Carteen.]

Mrs. fi.—Why, it seems that Miss Dashell has been deceiving us. She has been palming off those lovely bonnets they wore last season as Parisian, when she made them herself, and so saved $5,000, which they're going to Europe to spend.

"Absalom," said the wife, settling herself firmly in her seat, "you have gone out between acts

The Maid of Belle Isle.

[From the Cartoon.]
There is a young maid in Belle Isle,
Who walks in eight minutes a misle,
Can jump over a stiste—
Well, I recken you'd smisle,
To see her go over the stisle!

This dameel knows nothing of guisle,

Within Three Days of Sufety.

NEW HAVEN, Nov. 27.—Samuel Halliwell, a cal-estate dealer, was arrested last night in his office on Church street, charged with an embez-

Thin Ice-Four Drowned.

FOND DU LAC, Wis., Nov. 27, -Charles and Henry Tagy web.
through.
CHARLES CITY, Ia., Nov. 27.—Charles Gilbert and Glenn Blodgett, aged sixisen and fourteen years respectively, broke through the ice Sunday while skating and were drowned.

fapecial to the world, !

OMAHA, Nov. 27. - Elmer Webb and Tom emitt fought seven rounds with bare knuckies in a deserted building near Merner Sunday. Webb was declared the winner and awarded the prize money, $100, and the gate receipts. Both men were pretty badly used up.

Notes of Organized Labor.

The National Silk Workers' Union and the Tex-tile Federation of North America are arranging for amalgamation.

The Iron Moulders' Union of America has $9,000 members and 250 local unions. Union moulders average $2.76 a day.

The awitchmen continue their strike at Indian-apolis. Meantime new men are taking their places and it looss as if the struggle would be disastrous to the strikers.

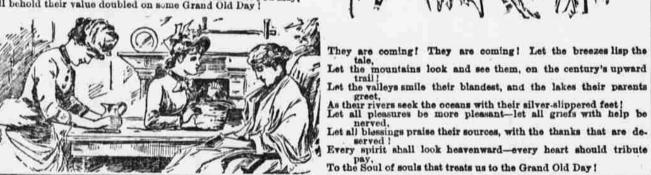

[From the Ladies' Home Journal,] It is coming—it is coming—be the weather dark or fair— See the jey upon the faces—feel the blessings in the air!
Get the dining chamber ready—let the kitchen stove be filled—
Into gold dust pound the pumpkins—have the fatted turkeys killed;
The the chickens in a bundle by their downy yellow legs—
Hunt the barn, with hay upholstered, for the ivory prisoned eggs;

And we first will go to meeting; where the parson we shall hear Pack in gilded words the blessings that have gathered through the year. And the choir will yield an anthem, full of unencumbered might; That their stomachs would not hear of, if they waited until night; Olden people will sit musing of Thanksgiving mornings fled—Younger people will sit hoping for Thanksgiving days shead. But they'll join in silent chorus when the preacher comes to pray; For we all must be religious on the Grand Old Day!

Then I hear the kindly racket, and the traffic of old news.
Of a meeting after meeting, 'mid the porches and the pews:
They will tell each other blessings that are fondled o'er and prized—
They will tell each other blessings by affliction well disguised.
For the health that is a fortune, and the harvest full of gold,
Side by side with destitution and rheumatics shall be told:
And we'll hone that many formen to each other's side way stream And we'll hope that many formen to each other's side may stray. For the world should all be friendly, on the Grand Old Day!

Come to dinner!—we are coming, we are coming, fat and spare! Smell the sweet and savory music of the odors in the air! Hear the dishes pet each other with a soft and gentle clash! Feel the mow of loadlets broken—see the table-sabres flash! Let our palates climb the gamut of delight-producing taste—Our interiors feel the pressure of provisions snugly placed; Full of thanks and full of praises, full of conversation gay—Full of everything congenial, on the Grand Old Day.

Ah! the poor and sick and sorrowing! To our glad hearts be it known That God never gave a blessing to be clinched and held alone; Here are brothers, here are sisters, all entitled to their share; We shall always have them with us—He bath put them in our care! You who clutch at every mercy, and devote it to yourselves, You are setting heavy treasures on the weakest kind of shelves; You who take the wares of heaven and divide them while you may, Will behold their value doubled on some Grand Old Day!

TRISCO'S THANKSGIVING MENU.

The Day Has Not Been Generally Observed in New Orleans Since the War. Here are two despatches delayed by the ba wires of yesterday:

[SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD. BAN PRANCISCO, Nov. 27. - The following menu of the Thanksgiving dinner to be served at the Palace Hotel on Thursday was prepared by F. Morgenthaler, the experienced chef of that famous hostelry.

cessful contestants. The prizes are seven in num-ber, and amount to $3,750. They are, respect-It is printed in elegant style on eight pages of ber, and amount to $3,750. They are, respectively: First prize, $1,000; second, $750; third, $600; fourth, $500; fifth, $400; sixth, $300, and seventh, $200. The Manhattan, New York, Brooklyn and other chess clubs in the country have promised to raise a purse of $1,000 for the winner of the Brat prize. This will surely attract the attention of the champions of Europe, and the tournament will probably be the grandest gathering of chess experts the world has ever seen. Mr. William Steinitz, who wou the championship from the late Dr. Zukertort after the memorable series of match games he played with the Doctor three years ago in San Francisco, New York and New Orleans, says he has all reasons to believe that the champions of England, Scotland, Austria, feed satin paper, bound together with heavy silk

On the title page is the music of "Praise Ged, from Whom All Blessings Flow,"

Oystens.

Gystens.
Blue Force.
Oysten on the Shell.
Sour.
Consommé des Sportsman.
Uream of New Peas.
St. Germsin.
Bons D'GUVEES.
Olives. Caviar Russe. Balt
Colery. Radish.
Escalors of Lawon Venition

| Escalops of | action Venitienne. Broiled Shad a la Polonaise.

Portugate at a Formass.

Position at a Formass.

Paddie of Bear à la Statieva a.

Ham, Giacoley - Capons, Orster Bauce
Ham, Giacoley - Capons, Orster Bauce
Ham, Giacoley - Capons, Orster Bauce
Brothelie of Lamb.

Brochelie of Lamb.

Bweetbraads, Pures of Chestnuts.

Papillettes of Tenterkin of Beaf à la Clarmont,
Ham à la Chantilly.

Aspice of Fat Gone Liver, birasbourgeias.

Croustades of Cherries.

Portugaise, Punch à la Cardinal.

BOAFR.

Prime Koast Beef.

Portugaise, Punch à la Uardinal,

ROASIA.

Prime Roast Beef.

Land. Mint Sauce,

Mallard I'wik. Currant Jelly,

Young Turkey, Crainterry Sauce,

SALADE.

Celery, Heart of Lattuce and Eggs.

VECETABLES.

Sweet Potators. Cautillower. String Beans. Rice.

Mashed Potaties. Hominy, cold.

Mashed Potaties. Hominy, cold.

GAME.

Pate, Boned Capen, à la Jelly.

FASTIY.

English Pinm Pudding. Mince Pic. Pasch Tartlette.

Croquette de Massina. Assorted Fancy Cakes.

A Meringun, à la Creme. Boulone.

Buscuit Giace a l'Italianne.

Fruits. Dessert. Coffee.

LITTLE OBSERVED IN NEW ORLEANS. [SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.] NEW OBLEANS, Nov. 27. - A visit to all the lead ing hotels and restaurants of this city has developed the astonishing fact that not a single dis tinctively Thanksgiving dinner will be given in this city outside of private residences.

In fact such a dinner has been almost unknown since the war, restaurants and hotels making no change in the usual cards. The day will pass without a large proportion of the population knowing that it has come. It will be observed by a few church-goers and perhaps by Northerners who have recently moved here, but it has never been generally celebrated in New Orleans, and is less each succeeding year.

Money Won this Time.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 27.— "The Republicans," said Major William Dickson, of the National Democratic Committee to THE WORLD correspond ent last night, " had lour dollars to every one the Democrats had for campaign purposes. The Democrats spent the bulk of theirs in efforts at popular education, while the Republicans expended theirs in the straight business of purchasing votes. The Democrats flooded the country with tariff orators and tariff literature. The Republicans papered the close districts and the pivotal Strites with greenbacks. I believe that any pollician of experience and sagacity who has made a study of the campaign and its results will tell you that all our literature and or tory did not make as many as five thousand converts, while there is every reason to believe, and I think it is susceptible of proof that the Hepublican menagers purchased outright not less than 25,000, and possibly as many as 800,000 votes. Our plan of cempaign is not as effective at short range, out it is Democratic, and I have an abiding faith in its power to win in the long run." Democrate had for campaign purposes. The

Lee-Saunders. [SPECIAL TO THE WORLD.] BOSTON, NOV. 27. -Mr. William Lee, of the pub lishing house of Lee & Shepard, and Mrs. E. L. White-Saunders, of New York, were united in formed in the apartments of Mr. Shepard at the desire of winessing the ceremony, which was impressively performed by Rev. L. T. Townsend, D. D. Mrs. Sannders, who is a charming and beautiful woman, were a bridal costume of externe simplicity and beauty. The bride is a member of screens in New York. greet.

As their rivers seek the oceans with their silver-slippered feet!
Let all pleasures be more pleasant—let all greefs with help be nerved.
Let all blessings praise their sources, with the thanks that are deserved! Every spirit shall look heavenward—every heart should tribute To the Soul of souls that treats us to the Grand Old Day!

CHAMPIONSHIP CHESS EULES.

world, which will meet in this city the first week

f April, have been settled upon, and it now only money prizes which will be awarded to the suc-

In the matter of the time allowed for each move,

Mrs. Lamadrid's Free Dinner. Mrs. J. M. Lamadrid will give her second annus free Thanksgiving dinner, to the poor at the St. Andrew's one-cent coffee stands. The menu will

No Olive Branch from Young Blaine.

Col. Nevins, the father of Mrs. James G. Blaine

r., denied to an EVENING WORLD reporter to-day

New Paces at the Hotels.

Boston, are at the Albemaric.

George Schofield, of Rockville, Conn.; S.
Fishblade, of Cleveland, and G. R. Metcaif,
Eric, Pa., are registered at the Bartholdi,

Among the guests at the Fifth Avenue Hotel are L Gana and G. E. Lemoy, of Washington; J. H. amp, of Lyons, and G. W. Simmonds, of Fitts-

Among the Hotel Brunswick guests are J. C. Paige, of Boston; S. M. Clement, of Buffalo; J. A. Davidson, of Chicago, and Frank J. Saxe, of Albany.

At the St. James are George Urban, ir., of Buffalo; W. B. M. Miller, of Providence; W. B. Hedden, of Chicago, and George Tupper Brown, of Baltimore.

Joseph Campbell, of St. Louis; Col. C. L. Best and Capt. J. C. Ayres, U. S. A.; Edward Soule, of Palladesphia, and B. O. Hough, of Rochester, are at the Grand Hotel.

Conspicuous at the Hoffman House are D. Colton Kimball, of Boston; Dr. K. A. Wood, of Pittsburg; D. C. Ammidou, of Baitimore; ex-Gov. Watson C. Squires, of Washington Territory, and Dr. Kerr, of Washington.

A Dream Dispelled.

[From the Carross.]

I felt like a person entranced,
I could really do nothing but stare,
As a beautiful before me danced
And gamboiled about in the sir.

She salled into space like a sprite,
Then rose higher still with a bound,
And then after glidling from left to right
Dropped gracefully back to the ground,

"I's a fairy," cried l, ''or I'm cracked,"
But a neighbor soon opened my eyes;
Bud be: ''She's a ballet girl doing her sot,
And sne's yanked by a chap in the flies."

he statement in another paper that young Mr. Biaine is in town and has made overtures for a reconciliation. Col. Nevins said that not only had no attempt at reconciliation been made by young Mr. Biane, but he and his family were unaware of this young man's presence in these parts.

New Regulations to Govern the Coming They Will Probably Begin With the Coming International Chess Congress. Month of December. The rules to govern the Sixth American Interna-It is now hoped that the course of free lecture tional Chess Congress for the championship of the provided for in THE EVENING WORLD'S bill may be

They are coming! They are coming! Let the breezes lisp the begun in the coming monta of December. The Committee on Evening Schools of the remains to see who among the great players of Europe will come over here to try for the big Board of Education, has adopted the report of its sub-Committee, Commissioners Guggenheimer, Dodge and O'Brien, in the matter of the lectures. The sub-Committee reported the following schools as best adapted to the requirements of the course: It was also recommended that all lecturers should be paid, and that the rate of compensation shall be $10 per lecture, and that there should be appointed a Superintendent to have charge of each course of lectures at a compensation of $5 per night.

"THE EVENING WORLD" LECTURES.

The subjects selected as suitable and the parties recommended as the best qualified to present them to the public are submitted below: 1. "Universal History Illustrated," by Prof. L. B.J. Lincoln.
2. "Chemistry as Applied to Popular Subjects," by Prof. A. Mott, Ph.D., and Dr. S. O'Comor Shane. New Orleans, says he has all reasons to believe that the champions of England, Scotland, Austria, France, Spain, Germany and Russia will try conclusions in the battle for the kings during the progress of the tournament.

Each player will be required to deposit $50 as entrance money, which will be forfeited in case he declines to compete or drops out before the close of the tournament. Each player is required to play two games with each of the other contestants, the games to be played Monday, Wednesday, Friday and Saturday of each week, while the unfinished games will be settled on Tuesday and Tursday.

Prof. A. Mott, Ph.D., and Dr. S. O'Connor Sloane.

3. 'Hygiens,' by Hanry G. Hanchett, M. D.

4. 'Kiestricity as Applied to Laght and Power," by kidward H. Boyor.

5. 'Aicroscopical Life," by Stephen Helm.

6. 'Microscopical Life," by Stephen Helm.

7. 'Physiolog and Anthropology," by Nathan S. Roberts, M. D.

8. 'Political Feonomy" and 'Natural and Political Science, 'by H. M. Leptager,

9. 'Literature," by Prof. J. O. Zachos,

10. 'Legal Talks,' by George A. Clement,

11. 'Natural History," by Frof. Bickmore,

12. 'Kye and Kar,' by J. Occord: Tanaley, M. D.

13. 'Coal, Wood and Air," by Prof. Bickmore,

The report recommends the adoption of the plan The report recommends the adoption of the plan by the full Board and their reference, with power, to the Committee on Evening Schools.

WHAT GOT IN ANNIE'S EYES?

the rules have been altered somewhat to the disadvantage of the slow, thoughtful players, who will have to make at least filter moves each hour as against twelve, according to the conditions of the match games heretolore played. The Committee of Judges will consist of twelve of the best players in this country, chosen by a vote of the contestants. She Charges a Young Man with Throwing Pepper, but He Says It Was Tobacco. Righteen-year-old Annie Bassalan, of 266 East Houston street, made a strange complaint against John Smith, a young barber, at Essex Market Poinclude roast mrkey, roast beef, boiled ham, po-lators, onlons, cranberry sauce. ples, orang s, spples, nuts, rasins and coffee. A supply suffi-cient for 1,500 persona has been laid in and any further donations of food or money sent by char-liable persons to Mrs. Lamadrid's headquarters, 210 Mauison street, will further the good work.

Annie said she was about to take a walk last evening and when she opened the front door

ice Court this morning.

evening and when she opened the front door something was blown into her eyes, which blinded ner for the moment. She screamed, and Policeman Norris ran up and arrested Smith on a charge of having thrown the stuff, which she believed to be pepper.

Annie suffered exeruclating pain during the night and appeared with a bandage wrapped around her eyes, which were red and swellen.

"What motive would I have to throw pepper into your eyes?" asked Smith. "You never spoke to me, did you?"

"No, "she admitted.

In his own behalt the young man said he was a next coor neighbor of Annie's He intended going to a thesire last evening, and a young man who lived in the same house with Annie was to accompany him.

Registered at the Sturievant House are J. P. Pim, of Montreal; W. A. Darit, of Milwaukee, and C. E. Davis, of Uhicago.
F. G. Kay, of Pittsburg; H. L. Daggett, of Boston; J. H. Rice, of Albany, and S. A. Besse, of Boston, are at the Albemaric.

pany him.
While standing in front of the door he took out a paper of chewing tobacco.

Just then the hall door opened, and the wind blew some of the tobacco dust into the young woman's eyes. He was held for further exami-

Must Pay Tax on Capital.

The General Term of the Supreme Court has af-firmed the order of the Special Term, made last June, imposing a fine upon the Meyer Sniffer Company (Limited), of this city, for non-payment of a tax on its capital stock for 1885. The con pany was assessed for that year at $75,000 and taxed at $1,800. It paid $1,674.68, but refused to pay the balance, claiming that the same was filegally imposed. This claim was based upon the fact that under chapter 551, Laws of 1881, the capillegally imposed. This claim was based upon the fact that under chapter 561, Laws of 1881, the capital stock of the company was taxable in New York County for local rurposes only, not for State purposes, but that the tox for 1885 neluded a State tax of .1671 per cent., amounting to $125, 32. No sleps were taken by the company, as provided by law, to have the tax reviewes.

In the proceeding by the Receiver of Taxes to enforce the balance unpaid Judge Lawrence held that it was too late, in such proceeding, to question either the legality or quantum of the tax, and imposed a fine of $145, to be applied to the payment of the lax, interest and charges. The opinion of the General Term just rendered sustains the position aken at Special Term—that the lax cannot be assailed colleterally. Charles B. Meyer appeared for the company, George S. Coleman for the Receiver of Taxes.

" His Friend Told Him So." Messra, RINER & SON. SIRE: I have had a very had cold and could find noth ing to break it up until a friend told me to try your "BIRER's EXPECTORANT." I did so, and am happy to say that my cold disappeared entirely from its effect.

AVENUES OF FAT TURKEYS

MARKET STALLS GROAN UNDER THE WEIGHT OF THANKSGIVING POULTRY.

Well-Fed and Luscions-Looking Gobbier Fat Chickens, Ducks, Quall and Ground in Great Abundance and at Fair Prices-Promise of a Universal and Hearty Color bration of the Festival.

Great preparations have been made this ear for celebrating Thanksgiving Day. The narkets are loaded down with provide and the indications are that this year the hold iday will be observed even more generally than as heretofore.

An Evenino World reporter walked through Washington Market this morning. and the sight he saw was an enticing one indeed. The narrow pathways were banked up on both sides with a solid wall of poultry and other good things that will go towards filling the inner man day after to-morrow. Turkeys, chickens and geese were there in plenty, and on the other side of the market the produce dealers had dressed their stands with such a profusion of vegetables that the with such a profusion of vegetables that the stalls presented the appearance of gardens in the full bloom of summer.

The marketmen expect that the trade this year will be much heavier than in former years, owing the prosperity of the people and the natural increase in population.

Business was good yesterday in spite of the heavy weather, but is much better to-day to-morrow it will be immense. Yesterday and to-day are grest shipping days, and the poultry arriving to-night and early to-morrow morning will fill the market to such an extent that it will be a surprise if there is not a temporary glut.

a temporary glut.

Many people have had their orders in for two or three weeks, and one old fellow, a well-known lawyer, ordered his Thanksgiving dinner two months ago, and has called in twice a week ever since to remind his purveyor not to forget his order.

The storm of the last few days has not affected the ratio of peoplity in the least feet of the property of the last few days has not affected the ratio of peoplity in the least feet of the last few days has not affected the ratio of peoplity in the least feet of the last few days has not affected the ratio of peoplity in the least feet of the last few days has not affected the ratio of peoplity in the least feet. fected the price of poultry in the least. It was a cold rnap, and was looked upon as a benefit if anything. Had it been warm prices fected the price of poultry in the least. It was a cold snap, and was looked upon as benefit if anything. Had it been warm prices would have dropped.

The best Philadelphia dry-picked turkeys bring 20 cents a pound. They weigh from eight to eighteen pounds each and are raised in Salem, N. J.; Frankfort, Pa., and the outskirts of Philadelphia. They derive their name from the fact that they are better fed and dressed than ordinary poultry, and are sent to Philadelphia to be sold. At wholesale they are worth about 17 cents.

Western turkeys, or Pennsylvanias sell at 13 cents, to 15 cents wholesale, 18 cents retail. A great many are dry picked and are almost as good as the so-called Philadelphia article. Jersey and "Up-river" turkeys, bring 17 cents wholesale, 18 to 20 cents retail. They are mostly scalded, a very few being picked dry.

Chickens are sound and tender. Philadelphis, 15c. a 16c. wholesale; retail; Western and Pennsylvania, 12c. a 13c., wholesale; retail, 15c. a 16c.; New Jerseys are so nicely picked and dressed that they bring more money than Western chickens. They are worth 15c. wholesale, 18c. retail.

Fowl is very good, the wholesale price being 12 cents and the retail 15 cents.

Ducks from Boston and Philadelphis are the best. They average about four pounds each and sell wholesale at 15 and 16 cents; retail; 20 cents, Long island ducks are just as good when not "fishy;" wholesale, 18c cents; retail, 18 cents. Western ducks, scalded, 14 cents wholesale; retail, 18 cents.

Geese are sold at about the same prices.

Quall are high, but excellent in quality. Long Islands and New Jerseys are worth the per dozen, Southern and Western $2.75, as wholesale and $1.50 at retail. Wild turkays are in fair demand at 25 cents a pound.

Rouse or prairie-chicken, average four pounds to the pair, and bring $1.25 a pair at wholesale and $2.0 cents for large and 25 cents to 35 cents for small.

Vegetables are good and cheap. Here are sample prices; Cranberries, 15 cents guart resmile prices; Cranberries, 15 cents guar for small.

Veretables are good and cheap. Here are sample prices: Cranberries, 15 cents quart; cauliflower, 15 cents to 35 cents; stringbeams. caulinower, 19 cents to 35 cents; stringbeams, 15 cents to 20 cents a quart; sweet polatoes, 25 cents a half peck; celery, 15 cents to 18 cents; Kalamazoo, 40 cents; radishes, 5 cents a bunch; onions, 10 cents a quart; beets, 5 cents a bunch; chicory, 5 cents a head; Erussels sprouts, 20 cents a quart for America, and 30 cents for the French variety; squash, 10 cents to 25 cents; watergress, 5 cents; watergress, 5 squash, 10 cents to 25 cents; watercress, 5 cents a quart; lettuce, 5 cents and 10 cents; mashrooms, $1.50 a pound; French arti-chokes, 20 cents and 25 cents; spinach, 25 cents a half peck; okra, 50 cents per 100; hothouse cucumbers, 25 cents each; egg plant, 30 cents and 50 cents. Christmas Echoes.

"Now, my dear," said Mr. Younghusband to the partner of his joys, who was about to stars forth on Christmas shopping bent, "get presents for all the family-in-law, and buy a nice lot of things for the boys; but don't spend more than things for the boys; but don't spend more than hundred dollars. We must live within our income." "Way, George," replied the lady, in an aggrieved tone, "you told me we had $200 this month—you know you did." And Mr. Younghusband only sighed.

"Can you lend me $25 this morning, Mr. Williamson ?" asked a needy friend, entering the broker's office. "Sorry, Barrows, but I really can't, Williamson went out this morning to buy little surprise for me, and she took all the money I had."

little surprise for me, and she took all the money I had."

"Ethel," said the landlady to her daughter,

"we must make the Urristmas reason a pleasants one for the boarders. Suppose we ask them all to hang up their stocking on Christmas Eve, so that we may put some little remembrance in each?" "That is a very good idea, mother. We can give sir. Mouldy a penknife; to Mr. Palette, the artist, we can give a box of paints; young Scribbler would be delighted to have patent lead-pencil; and for Mr. Slowboy-well, let me see-what would you suggest for Mr. Slowboy's stocking, Ma?" "Mr. Slowboy's currecipted bill will do for Mr. Slowony," replied the old lady, starnly.

"Have you decided on your privents for the boys yet, my dear?" asked Mr. Hendricks, after the lack and let the breakfast-sible for school. "Not quite all. But I have decided, William, that they shall all be given something useful. There is no use of wasting money on useless toys for them to break—and, by the way, we need a new rag for the parior, and a dozen tumbiers. William." "All well, why not get the rug for George, and give the tumblers to John?"

A Suspicious Southern Journalist.

(From the Allanta Journal.)
We see by the letter-press description and illusion rations in THE EVENING WORLD that they have incented a "baby hatching gradle" at the North. It is no doubt a Republican device, instigated by the report that a Democratic family in Texas had been blessed with four boys at one birth.

His Pipe Set Him on Fire. NYACE, NOV. 27.— " The man is on fire," shouted a boy this morning as a colored junkman named Mayo waiked up the street with a neavy cloud of smoke issuing from his coat talls. Several persons ran up to Mayo and assessed in extinguishing the fire, unit the wasterned that the man, being an incase and smoker, had a few moments before taken his idpe out of his mouth and put it in his pocket.
The lonacco was not all burnt out, and the fire, dropping out, set the coat iming in a blaze. Had the lire burned a little while longer the man would have been basily burned. smoke issuing from his coat tails. Several persons

Thousands

Who have been troubled with that disagreeable flow from the nose, offensive breath, pain over and between the eyes, ringing and bursting notices in the eyes, and other disagreeable symptoms of estarth, have been satirely cured by Hood's Sarsaparilla, the best bleed-purifying medicine. It expels every taint of impurity from the blood, vitalizes and soriches it, and size improves the general basith. If you suffer from externity Hood's Sarsaparilla and be convinced of the marit. Hood's Sarsaparilla is soid by all druggests. this is feegat. Frepared by C. I. HOGD & OO., Lowell, Mars.